(Sorry about that, but we can't show files that are this big right now.)

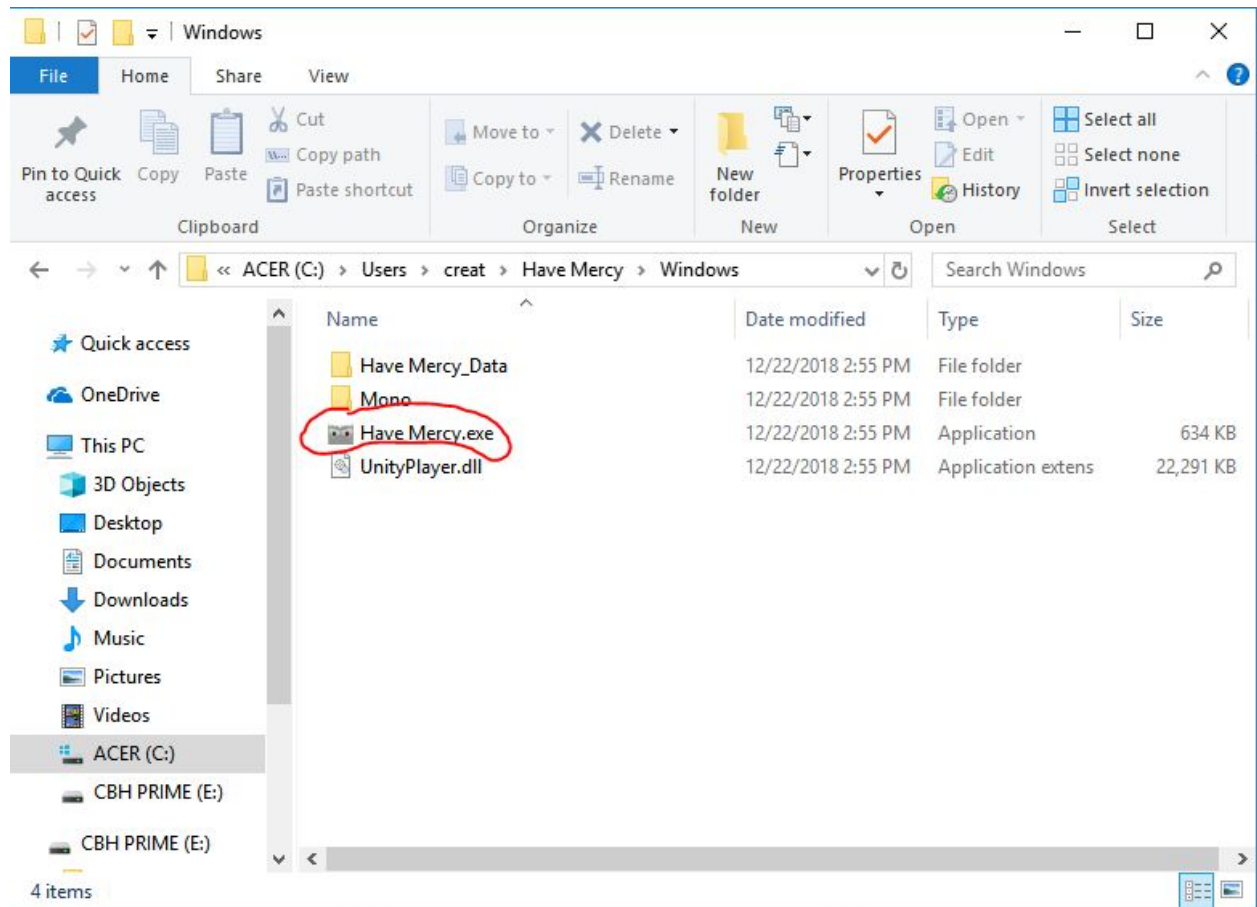

Once it finishes downloading, click the folder's icon at the bottom of your web browser. Extract all of the files inside the folder. Choose wherever you want them to be extracted

Navigate to the place where you extracted the folder. Double click the folder with the name of the operating system you are using

Inside the folder, click the file with the title of the game and a fun little icon

Have fun!
